The figures mentioned above do not include repatriates from Sri Lanka or other countries like Burma, Mozambique, Zaire, Uganda, Vietnam; as the information asked for pertains to refugees only.

The figures for displaced persons from former West and East Pakistan who had migrated to India and were settled with Government assistance or have settled on their own, are also not included for the reasons that they are to be taken to have merged in the mainstream of national life, and are no longer considered Refugees.

(c) and (d) 30,123 refugees have voluntarily returned to Sri Lanka from 24th July, 1983 till 16.4. 1988. 81 Tibetan refugees left India during the years 1985-86 and 3985 tribal refugees were sent back to Bangladesh in 1986 from Mizoram after taking up the matter with the Government of Bangladesh. No refugees were sent back forcibly.

(e) Refugees from Sri Lanka are presently being sent back regularly in chartered vessels. The Tibetan refugees have been given asylum in India and are free to live as long as they like or till such time as an amicable settlement with China is reached. The question of return of tribal refugees, staying in Tripura; to Bangladesh has been taken up with the Government of Bangladesh at various levels and efforts are continuing in this regard.
